Hazelett Women in Leadership Forum

ILLUSTRATING THE QUALITIES OF EXCELLENCE NECESSARY FOR LEADERSHIP.

Welcome

We are proud to present the second annual Hazelett Women in Leadership Forum. This program grows out of a desire to honor and hear from individuals who are successful leaders. Our speakers are individuals who exemplify excellence in leadership and work to support the advancement of women in leadership roles.

With the generous support of Ambassador Randall L. Tobias, the Randall L. Tobias Foundation, IU Tobias Center for Leadership Excellence, IUPUI, and its Office for Women have combined efforts to create the Hazelett Women in Leadership Forum. The Hazelett Forum joins the mission of the IU Tobias Center to inspire leadership excellence with IUPUI's commitment to fostering a climate of diversity, opportunity, and equity for women and men.

To this end, the IU Tobias Center, the IUPUI Office for Women, IUPUI Chancellor Charles R. Bantz and his wife, Professor

Sandra Petronio, and the IU Foundation invite the community, corporate leaders, students, and scholars to share in a learning experience focused on women leaders in all walks of life. Honorees offer insights into knowledge about leadership in the modern workplace, including their reflections on the role of gender, work/life balance, and effective communication.

This Forum was established in honor of the late Susie Hazelett, the former Executive Director of the Randall L. Tobias Foundation. She was instrumental in helping to establish the IU Tobias Center for Leadership Excellence and we are proud to have her name associated with this important leadership forum.

The Hazelett Forum was made possible by a generous gift from Ambassador Randall L. Tobias, who wanted to honor Susie Hazelett's outstanding work for the Tobias Family Foundation, the community of Indianapolis, the state of Indiana, and for the women in these communities. By establishing this Forum within the Tobias Center, it is his hope the Forum will present at least one program each year focusing on the issues of leadership in gender, family, and work/life balance. The Hazelett Women in Leadership Forum will serve various constituencies of the university, including students, faculty, staff, alumni, and interested persons in the community, by providing a forum for knowledgeable and creative speakers to celebrate the achievements of women leaders in various walks of life and to elevate public discussions and university scholarship on women in leadership roles.

Hazelett Women in Leadership Forum

The Hazelett Women in Leadership Forum is dedicated to the memory of Suzanne "Susie" Northam Hazelett.

During Susie's life, she served the community in many different roles. In every one, she was a hero. She was a tireless volunteer who donated her time to countless organizations. Regardless of the task, Susie attacked each one with conviction, skill, and above all, a smile.

As a business professional, Susie was adept at everything she turned her attention toward. She was a teacher and education advocate who positively impacted the lives of children every day. In her role as a consultant, she helped not-for-profit organizations fulfill their missions and reach their goals.

As director of the Randall L. Tobias Foundation, and instrumental in the creation of the Randall L. Tobias Center for Leadership Excellence, Susie influenced everyone she touched with her gentle guidance, intellect, and wit.

Susie's first priority in life was her family. She was a dedicated daughter, mother, and wife who enjoyed nothing more than spending time with her family.

After a brief battle with ovarian cancer, Susie Hazelett passed away in August 2004. She is missed everyday by those who knew her.

Susie Hazelett touched and inspired many people throughout the course of her life. Through the Hazelett Women in Leadership Forum, we hope to continue her legacy and inspire others to become the type of leader Susie epitomized—one of accomplishment, warmth, passion, and an undeniable caring for everyone.
