NEW 2022 GUIDELINES

PURPOSE

Women’s History Month was established by Congress in 1987 to address the fact that, “the role of American women in history has been consistently overlooked and undervalued in the body of American history” and that to remedy this “the President is requested to issue a proclamation calling upon the people of the United States to observe such month with appropriate ceremonies and activities.” Public Law 110 -9. It is in this spirit of recognition and celebration that these awards are presented at the annual Women’s History Month Recognition Reception.

During Women’s History Month, the IUPUI Office for Women and the Division of Student Affairs recognizes and celebrates students, faculty and staff who have demonstrated significant leadership, achievement, advocacy, or service at the campus, community, national, and/or international level in support of gender equity, women’s empowerment, women’s history, or cultures of inclusion.

Information about the 2022 faculty, staff, and student nomination process can be found at this website: https://ofw.iupui.edu/Awards/Annual-Womens-Leadership-Awards.”

CATEGORIES: Faculty and Staff Awards

There are five (5) categories of awards:
1. full-time “veteran” faculty
2. full-time “newcomer” faculty
3. full-time “veteran” staff
4. full-time “newcomer” staff
5. Part-time faculty or staff leader

- A “veteran” member is anyone who has served the university continuously for five or more years.
- A “newcomer” is anyone who has served the university for fewer than five years.
CRITERIA

These awards seek to celebrate faculty and staff members who exhibit exemplary action, initiative, guidance, achievement, generosity, commitment and service. All current faculty and staff members are eligible for nomination regardless of track or status. Faculty and staff designated as “part-time” will be considered in that category. While all criteria will be important in the selection process, a successful nominee would exhibit extraordinary effort and achievement in at least one of these areas:

- significant leadership in support of gender equity, women’s empowerment, women’s history, or cultures of inclusion
- outstanding achievement in support of gender equity, women’s empowerment, women’s history, or cultures of inclusion
- dedicated advocacy in support of gender equity, women’s empowerment, women’s history, or cultures of inclusion
- committed service in support of gender equity, women’s empowerment, women’s history, or cultures of inclusion

EXAMPLES

Actions, accomplishments and service could include the following (not a complete list):

Leadership: Serving in an official capacity in a professional association, non-profit organization, community organization, campus governance, etc.
Achievement: effort recognized in awards, publication, scholarship, research, program creation and/or management, policy implementation
Advocacy: aid, assistance, encouragement in support of individuals, organizations, community
Service: giving, supporting, volunteering to benefit others, coaching and mentoring

NOMINATIONS

All current IUPUI students, faculty and staff may nominate current faculty or staff for the awards. The winners and nominees are announced at the Women’s History Month Recognition Reception. Winners are announced and presented with awards at the reception. This is a public event, and we encourage nominators and department colleagues to attend. Winners and nominators will be notified in mid-March of the results.
